

ERECTS MEMORIAL TO POETS OF SOUTH

Beautiful Monument in Augusta Is Gift of Mrs. E. W.
Cole.

TO BE UNVEILED TO-MORROW

Ryan, Randall, Hayne and Lanier Are the Bards Thus Honored.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Augusta, Ga., April 26.—In memory of the South's four greatest poets, Father Ryan, Ryder Randall, Paul Hamilton Hayne and Sydney Lanier, Mrs. E. W.
Cole, of Nashville, Tenn., formerly Miss Anna Russell, of Augusta, has erected in the city of her birth, in honor of her father, the late Hon. Henry F. Russell, first Democratic Mayor of Augusta after the Civil War, a handsome monument, which will be unveiled here next Monday.

Master Whiteford R. Cole, a grandson of the donor, will unveil the tablet, while Chancellor J. H. Kirkland, of Vanderbilt University, acting for Mrs. Cole, will present the shaft to Augusta and the South.

While Mrs. Cole was a resident of Augusta the four poets, who were her warm personal friends, frequently gathered at her home. It has been her wish for years to erect a memorial to those noted bards, whose names are synonymous with sweetness where-ever verse is read. The unveiling of the monument will be the realization of her fondest dream.

Mrs. Cole is one of the South's most prominent women. She and her late husband, Colonel E. W. Cole, founded the Tennessee Industrial School, a school which educates boys and girls on self-supporting and useful lines.
She is also the founder of the famous Cole lectures now in vogue at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, and was instrumental last year in bringing about the organization of the Southern Sociological Congress. This last named organization was originated mainly for studying and improving social and civil as well as economical conditions in this section of the country.

Opposite the old St. John's Methodist Church in Augusta, where Mrs. Cole's father was once a steward, in a setting of stately elms, the monument will stand.

Four granite columns, which rise from a tall base, supporting a roof of granite, carry out a pretty design, and give to the monument a sacred appearance. Inside the upright columns stands a block of granite bearing on its four sides an inscription to each of the poets with a quotation from their writings. Following are the inscriptions and quotations:

Sidney Lanier—1832-1880.
"The Catholic man who hath mighty won God out of knowledge and good out of infinite pain.
And eight out of blindness and purity out of a stain."

Father Ryan—1842-1886.
"To the higher shrine of love divine My lowly life have I trod, I want no fame, no other name Than this—a priest of God."

James H. Randall—1839-1905.
"Better the fire upon the roll, Better the blade, the shot, the bowl,
Than crucifixion of the soul, Maryland—My Maryland!"

Paul Hayne—1830-1888.
"Yet would I rather in the outward state
Of Song's immortal temple lay me down.
A beggar, hawking by thy radiant gate, Than bend beneath the haughtiest empire's crown!"

Many prominent people will attend the dedicatory exercises. The cost of the memorial is $5,000.

Short News Stories From All Over Virginia

LATE ADVICES FAVORABLE.

Apples Did Not Suffer as Much as Was Thought at First.

Roanoke, Va., April 26.—Inquiry as to probable damage to fruit crops resulting from the frosts and freezes of the early week, now that fruit growers have had an opportunity to make investigations outside of local orchards, develops the general opinion that the small fruit crop in the mountain sections of Virginia is practically wiped out, while apples have been materially damaged. Indications are here with a quotation from the following: "The cherry crop had been damaged fully 75 per cent.
It is the prevailing belief, however, that apples have not suffered so much as was at first thought. Investigation in numerous orchards in Roanoke County prove that few blooms were frost bitten on high grounds.
In many cases blossoming trees in bottom lands have been damaged to such an extent that little fruit is to be expected. Trees thus located, however, form only a very small proportion of the total.
Local fruit men say they have been informed that damage in the section southwest of Roanoke has suffered more than the Roanoke Valley. Apples have been seriously damaged west of the Alleghany Mountains while small fruit was wiped out by frosts prior to this week.
Generally throughout this section strawberries were in half bloom when the frost came Monday. The plants are wonderful in recuperative strength, and while all blooms were killed, they had appeared early this week. It is believed other blooms will develop to sufficient extent to assure probably half a crop.

WILL VISIT PORTSMOUTH.

Secretary of the Navy and Senator Swanson Visit Portsmouth.

Portsmouth, Va., April 26.—On his next visit to Portsmouth, Secretary of the Navy Daniel A. Swanson, who is a member of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee, Senator Swanson is expected to have the next Congress make such appropriations and provisions as will result in carrying out the intention of the general board of the navy, acting on the recommendation of the board, to make this the greatest naval station, not only in the United States, but in all the world.

Secretary Daniels will co-operate with him in shaping the plans and recommendations of the Navy Department to this end, as he believes it is highly essential to the safety of the nation and the greatest efficiency of the fleet that the naval station nearest Hampton Roads shall be equal in every respect to any and all demands that may be made upon it in peace or war.

Under an amendment to the last naval bill secured by Senator Swanson, President Wilson will soon, through the Department of State, extend an invitation to all the navies of the world to send warships to Hampton Roads for the rendezvous here in preparation to the passage of the canal for the opening of the Panama Canal for the first time. This rendezvous in Hampton Roads is expected to be the greatest gathering of warships ever known in the history of the world. The ships will be in these waters from thirty to sixty days, and the event will be a notable one.
President Wilson and the members of his Cabinet, as well as other dignitaries, will be added to the services because of the fact that three of the ministers who will participate in the dedicatory services will
with the church in the old house of worship in their youth—all of them being natives of
New England.

COOKS CREEK DEDICATION.

Three Ministers, Natives of Rockingham, Will Take Part in Services.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 26.—The dedication of the new Cooke Creek Presbyterian Church at New River, Va., will be of interest to the people of the county, as well as to the services because of the fact that three of the ministers who will
in their youth—all of them being natives of
New England.

of the First Presbyterian Church at Charlotte, N. C., who will preach the sermon in the forenoon; Rev. Holmes Ralston, pastor of Hebron Presbyterian Church, Augusta County, who will deliver the dedicatory prayer; and Rev. J. L. Lineweaver, of Richland, Va., who will preach. These ministers, united with a full choir, will conduct the services, which will be held in the Cooke Creek congregation which was torn away last summer.
Rev. H. F. Wilson, D. D., of Harrisonburg, will preside, and the only acquainted with the services. Other ministers will be present. Services will be conducted both morning and afternoon, with a picnic dinner to be served on the grounds at 12 noon, both days.
The church will be dedicated free of debt, all obligations for construction and furnishing of the new house of worship having been discharged by the congregation some time ago.
The first service in the church was the Anderson-Liekey marriage ceremony about Christmas.

S. F. C. A. TO BE ORGANIZED.

Movement on Foot to Establish Much-Needed Society in Danville.

Danville, Va., April 26.—A movement is being circulated in this city for the formation of a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals under the auspices of the Civic League. A petition was circulated on the streets yesterday and today, when all are desirous of becoming members of this society are asked to affix their names to one of the petitions.
It is planned to have from about 1,000 to 2,000 members of the society, and only a nominal fee will be charged. One of the plans of the society now is to employ a special agent to investigate and punish persons who use unnecessary cruelty to their horses or to other animals, and give him police power to summon or arrest the guilty parties.
A society of this kind has been in the minds of the residents of this city for some time, but this is the first time that any definite action has been taken to form it. There is one only to stand on lower Main Street a few minutes, and the society is badly needed in this place.

WILL TAKE CHURCH CENSUS.

Various Denominations of Salem Unite in Movement.

Salem, Va., April 26.—Salem growth has been so great within the past few years that the various churches have been unable to properly keep track of the newcomers of their several denominations, and a movement has been started which will be of immense benefit in correcting this condition.
This is the taking of a religious census, by which an attempt will be made to find the denominational preference of every person in the town. This will be followed by such efforts as the various denominations desire to make to interest those of that persuasion in active church work. The idea originated in the Presbyterian brotherhood, and a preliminary meeting was held in the church of the Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, at which a committee of one layman from each church was appointed to devise a plan for the taking of this census. This committee consists of: E. Shank, Jr., Presbyterian Church, chairman; J. P. Saul, Jr., of the Baptist Church, secretary; W. R. Cross, of the Methodist Episcopal Church; South; F. B. Walters, of the Lutheran Church;
W. H. Tinsley, of the Episcopal Church; W. E. Thurman, from the Methodist Episcopal Church; member from Christian Church to be appointed. A meeting of this committee will be held the early part of next week, at which a plan will probably be outlined for the taking of this census.

NEIGHBORS HELP TO REBUILD.

In One Week from Time of Fire Lumber Is Placed in New House.

Wellsville, Va., April 26.—In one week from the day R. L. Hawkes lost his house and most of his contents, he is being helped by his neighbors to rebuild. About April 7, to April 11, his good neighbors, about twelve in number, had cut and hauled logs to a near-by mill and dropped in his yard lumber to rebuild, while others are helping in other ways.
Mr. Hawkes did not have any insurance on his house or furniture, and it is one of several mysterious fires which have been on the old estate of the late Joshua L. Hawkes, these being: a large house, a stable with three horses, a large barn, a large shed, and the entire farm of 500 acres was burned away.
The lumber being the lumber of a neighbor who has long since moved away.
R. L. Hawkes, with his large family, has crowded in with his brother, S. Hawkes, until he can rebuild, having to wait until the lumber is delivered. The busy season with farmers near at hand, it is feared that it will be some time before he can move into new quarters.

IN NEED OF MORE FUNDS.

Mass-Meeting Held in Interest of Marion Female College.

Marion, Va., April 26.—A mass-meeting was held at the courthouse last Monday night in the interests of Marion Female College.
The meeting was presided over by George E. Richardson, who made an earnest plea for loyalty to the school, both in the way of contributions and patronage. He introduced Dr. J. H. Wilson, who presented a report of the financial condition of the college. He said that some good subscriptions have been promised him, and that the main building and the northeast extension had been completed at a cost of about $35,000.
It is admitted to be one of the best of the signed colleges in the land, and the work thus far has been splendidly done. The immediate needs are to furnish what has been erected and to build and equip the middle extension to provide ample rooms for auditorium, music rooms and society halls apart from the rest of the building. To do this it will require $25,000 to $30,000, and this amount Dr. Wilson is expected to raise.
James W. D. Greiner, chairman of the board, made excellent talks. Dr. Greiner had special stress upon the uplifting and bettering of the benefits resulting from the maintenance of such an institution in any town, saying that in a financial way it was equal to some great industrial enterprise, and its moral influence was beyond estimate.

LITTLE NEW LAND CLEARED.

Farmers in Freeling Section Well Advanced With Their Work.

Freeling, Va., April 26.—Despite the unfavorable weather that prevailed up to the middle of the month, the Freeling section along with their work than usual at this season. But little new land is being cleared up for cultivation. Sunday morning a heavy rain fell, and a considerable amount of land is being reseeded. The fencing is being used to inclose this land instead of the old serpentine fences, thus saving the valuable timber left on the farms for other purposes. Some of the land has been planted, but planting will not be general till about the 1st of May. The acreage to be planted is cut with a larger area of last year by at least 25 per cent.
What is looking better is the weather of the past winter, and the acreage is about double that of last year.

Cured of Rheumatism by Noah's Liniment After Ten Years of Suffering

This statement was handed in to us by a prominent business man of Richmond a few days ago, and is worth reading by any person suffering from rheumatism:

2013 E. Main Street, Richmond, Va.
Noah Remedy Co.,
My old servant, Belmore Johnson (colored), living at 801 Thirty-second Street, Richmond, who accompanied his master through the four years of the war, until the latter was killed at his side, told me that his wife had not crossed the street or been able to do anything in ten years. I gave him three small bottles of Noah's Liniment, and when questioned about the result, his reply was: "O Lord, Mrs. Blair, it done her all the good in the world! She can get all about the house now. It helped me too, for I had a bad misery in my chest; yes, it's powerful good medicine." He cannot write or read, but I can testify to the truth of what he says.
